The children will have the opportunity to take part in skipping, tag rugby, dance, Kwik Cricket and circus skills. If you would like to come along, please do so, wearing your sports gear. Children do not have to wear uniform on this day but should have shorts, tracksuit bottoms, t-shirt, sweatshirt and trainers. Many activities (weather dependant) will be outdoors, so ensure children have sun screen applied and a water bottle in school.

Police warn of internet scam on Isle of Wight

Thu, 06 May 2010 10:02 BST

Isle of Wight police have issued a warning about a scam involving a fake company making allegations about illegal use of the internet.

Four reports have been received to date about fraudsters sending letters to Islanders about the sharing of copyrighted music and video files online.

The scam uses the fake company name 'HSE Business Support', which falsely claims to be based in Newport High Street. People who receive a letter are told that a computer linked to their internet account has been monitored as sharing copyrighted music online unlawfully.

The company demands the payment of a £35 service charge within seven days. If this money is not paid, the company claims the person to whom the letter is addressed will have their personal details given to the BPI, which is a genuine music industry trade organisation, with the bogus threat of further investigation and possible prosecution.

Staff from the Isle of Wight Volume Crime Resolution Unit (VCRU) at Newport Police Station and Isle of Wight Council's Trading Standards Service are in contact with people who have reported receiving a letter so far. No money has been reported lost to the police so far. A joint police and Isle of Wight Council investigation into the scam is continuing.

Anyone who receives a letter matching this description is advised not to pay any money and report the matter by phoning either the police on 101 or Isle of Wight Council's Trading Standards Service on 01983 821000. Mini-Com users can call the police on 01962 875000. Information can be given anonymously by calling the Crimestoppers charity on 0800 555 111. From outside Hampshire and the Isle of Wight, call the police on 0845 045 45 45.
